ROBERT SHIBUYA

CHAIRMAN AND CEO

Robert Shibuya, Chairman and CEO of Mohr Partners, has focused 37 years on shaping and advancing the corporate real estate industry throughout the world. Mr. Shibuya is an expert in leading businesses and public institutions in managing their leased and owned real estate portfolios to drive cost savings and improve operational efficiencies. His knowledge ranges from strategic planning and transaction management to facility and project management, reporting and disposition. Mr. Shibuya joined Mohr Partners as President in July 2014, transitioning to the role of Chairman and CEO in April 2017. His primary task as Chairman and CEO is operating with Mohr Partners clients to help them achieve their strategic real estate goals and objectives.

Mr. Shibuya began his career in commercial real estate at Cushman & Wakefield in San Francisco initially as a property/facility manager. He was then promoted to the Los Angeles office to oversee a business unit providing facility, property management, project, and construction services to both corporate/occupier and landlord/investor clients. Prior to joining Mohr Partners, Mr. Shibuya served as CEO of DTZ with Cushman & Wakefield, where he led a $2B revenue global full-service property services firm with over 20,000 employees. Mr. Shibuya provided full-service solutions to both occupiers and landlords in the Americas, Asia, Europe, Middle East and Africa. He also served as the global head of corporate advisory services for The Trammell Crow Company, now part of CBRE, where he was responsible for managing over 500 brokers and transaction management professionals, leading Fortune 500 companies around the world.

Mr. Shibuya now resides in Dallas, Texas with his wife of 24 years and two sons, Robert and Richard. He is a passionate outdoorsman and spends his free time fishing, boating and dirt bike riding in the summers and skiing in the winters.
