CORBIN BENGSTON

DIRECTOR

Corbin Bengston, Director, joined Mohr Partners, Inc. (MPI) in 2004. Corbin’s primary focus is office and industrial space users with multiple locations throughout the world. In addition, he provides streamlined service through strategic planning, custom processes, and negotiation services. Corbin develops new business and strategically services existing business for his clients that have international real estate portfolios.

Corbin has completed over ten million square-foot of office and industrial transactions. He has developed portfolio optimization strategies for his clients’, managing every aspect of the portfolios. Corbin has worked with many developers and contractors to realize his clients’ build-to-suit goals.

Corbin’s chief objective is to ensure his clients’ interests are well represented, having saved an estimated 15% in overall occupancy cost on his clients’ behalf while exposing risks and rewards with each transaction.
