JILL AMES

ASSOCIATE

Jill Ames serves as an associate for Mohr Partners, Inc. in the Seattle office. As an entrepreneur, business owner, and investor, Jill offers a valuable perspective to her clients because she understands how critical the right office space and lease are to a company's culture, recruiting efforts and bottom line. She helps her clients minimize business interruption and maximize ROI through strong lease negotiations, understanding of the market utilization of space.

Jill has been in the real estate industry since 1999 and has commercial experience that includes not only tenant representation, but also foreclosure auctions, condo-conversions, multi-family and commercial real estate purchase transactions. Her experience includes owning two different franchise concepts, as well as multiple real estate services companies. Jill's experience makes her an invaluable partner in blending business needs with pragmatic commercial real estate solutions.

Jill lives in Kirkland, with her husband Jeremy and their two children. Jill helped Jeremy find the initial office spaces that allowed his business, Guidant Financial, to grow to one of the Inc 500 fastest growing companies. Now, it helps launch more than 2,000 small businesses each year. Jill and Jeremy strongly believe in giving back, and have donated their time as board members and advisor to several empowerment-focused international charities including Manos Unidas and E2 Educational Services.
