MELINDA RIGBY

ACCOUNT MANAGER

Melinda Rigby serves as an account manager, for Mohr Partners, Inc. in the Dallas office.

Melinda focuses on developing new business opportunities while providing strategic planning to existing clients with national real estate portfolios. Melinda brings over 15 years of experience to Mohr Partners.

Prior to joining Mohr Partners, Melinda was a senior consultant for Tango Analytics. She participated in client engagements and implementation of real estate service software, and store lifecycle management. Before her time at Tango Analytics, Melinda served as a real estate transaction manager for Newmark Grubb Knight Frank. She negotiated lease renewals, extensions, and terminations for more than 1,000 locations. Additionally, she analyzed demographic data, market data, store financials and obtained operators' recommendations to ensure the best real estate outcome.

Melinda started her career as an assistant real estate administrator with The Staubach Company from 2000-2001. Following, she was an area lease administrator for Blockbuster Inc. from 2001-2005. From 2005-2006, she was a property accounting analyst for Brinker International. Melinda then served as a real estate property manager for JCPenny Company, Inc. from 2006-2011.
