Antonio Cano serves as the Principal and Co-Founder for Citius Capital, Real Estate Services in Mexico. As a manager of the Northwest Region, Antonio has over 20 years of experience in the industrial real estate market. Antonio is responsible for the states of El Paso, TX, Chihuahua, Sonora, Durango, and Baja California.

In February 2012, Antonio was invited as a Senior Broker and Partner at Citius Capital, focusing on tenant representation, property leasing, sale-lease backs, and portfolio acquisitions and dispositions in Northwest Mexico. He later served as a Managing Partner with Citius for nearly nine years.

Antonio started his real estate career as a Sales and Administrative Manager at the Ferropuertos Industrial Park in Torreon, Coahuila from 1998 to 2001. Following, he joined CB Richard Ellis in El Paso, TX as an Industrial Real Estate Broker. In 2003, Antonio joined Grubb & Ellis/Best White in Cd. Juarez, Mexico where he spent eight years as the leader of the Chihuahua market.
