Caitlin Tyner is a Senior Account Manager at Mohr Partners, Inc., working in the Dallas office. As a part of the Transaction Services department, her primary responsibilities include overseeing real estate transactions for Global Corporate Service clients and providing strategic planning and transaction management for clients.

Caitlin has a decade of experience in client relationship management and real estate. She previously served as a Transaction Manager and Account Manager for Mohr Partners before rising to her current position in early 2024.

Prior to joining our firm, Caitlin worked at Mabrey & Partners LLC, a real estate development firm in Dallas. There, she was a Business Manager, monitoring construction costs and progress timelines and managing communication with vendors and clients.

Additionally, she spent over seven years in the multifamily space, including a role as a Sales Director & Resident Manager for Lincoln Property Company. She also worked as a Leasing Associate for ZRS/CWS and as a Marketing Assistant at UDR Apartments.

At Lincoln Property Company, Caitlin led a sales team that secured a full lease up within seven months and also scheduled and oversaw new resident move-ins while developing, planning and implementing new resident orientation programs.

Caitlin has a bachelor's degree in business administration from Texas A&M University-Commerce.
