Hunter Cogdell is an Account Manager at Mohr Partner working out of Austin, Texas. His primary responsibilities include managing account work for Global Corporate Service clients and providing both strategic planning and transaction services to clients.

He returns to Mohr Partners after working as a Transaction Coordinator and Research Analyst with our firm from February 2021 to May 2022.

In those roles, he managed a real estate portfolio for a national healthcare provider. His role involved developing client relationships, negotiating lease terms, and creating performance reports.

After leaving Mohr Partners in 2022, he assumed the role of Transaction Manager at Cushman & Wakefield. There, he handled a global real estate portfolio for a Fortune 100 healthcare provider. He coordinates due diligence, negotiates lease agreements, and prepares reports for stakeholders.

Additionally, Before Mohr Partners, Hunter was a Real Estate Consultant at TenantBase, representing SMBs in lease and purchase agreements. He also served as a Brokerage Assistant and Market Analyst at Whitebox Real Estate.

Hunter graduated from Texas Christian University in December 2018 with a Bachelor of Arts in International Economics and minors in Business Administration and Spanish Studies.
