Sohail Hamirani is the Chief Financial Officer and Head of Lease Administration at Mohr Partners, Inc., where he also serves as a shareholder. In his role, he leads the firm's finance and accounting functions, as well as the lease administration department, one of the company's fastest-growing divisions.

Under Sohail's oversight, the lease administration department manages all lease administration, lease accounting and rent payment services, supporting real estate and equipment leases from inception to termination. His leadership has driven improvements in data accuracy, scalability, innovation, efficiency and cost savings for clients.

Sohail became a shareholder in mid-2025, reflecting his strategic contributions and long-term commitment to the firm.

Sohail brings more than a decade of experience in accounting and finance, with previous roles at Goldman Sachs, Highgate Hotels and RealPage. His work has earned him numerous honors, including the Mohr Partners Chairman's Award in 2020 and 2024, CFO of the Year by the Dallas Business Journal in 2022 and Outstanding CFO – Small Company by D CEO in 2025.

He holds both bachelor's and master's degrees in accounting from Southern Methodist University, graduating summa cum laude. He is a Certified Public Accountant, Lean Six Sigma Black Belt, Associate Professional in Human Resources and also serves as an Adjunct Professor of Accounting at SMU.

Outside of work, Sohail volunteers his time mentoring youth in his community, helping with college applications and career planning. He also enjoys podcasts and reading mystery novels.
