Claire Cantwell serves as a Marketing Specialist for Mohr Partners, Inc., working at the firm's Dallas headquarters. In her role, she oversees property marketing, organizes and facilitates RFI/RFP responses and client proposals and collaborates with internal and external teams to promote the firm's identity and support marketing plans.

Claire came to Mohr Partners with more than three years of marketing and operations experience at Avid Real Estate Advisors, a Dallas-based commercial real estate firm, where she most recently served as Marketing Manager & Operations Coordinator. In that capacity, she produced property marketing materials, managed the marketing lifecycle for active listings and supported executive leadership with client-facing presentations and communications.

Earlier in her career, Claire served as an Assistant to the Director of Athletics at Dallas Baptist University, where she supported executive operations, managed donor and sponsorship records and coordinated events.

Claire earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Entrepreneurship from Dallas Baptist University, where she was also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, the National Leadership Honor Society.
