Kayla Valiani serves as the Office Coordinator & Compliance Associate for Mohr Partners, Inc., working at the firm's Dallas headquarters. In her role, she manages front desk operations and supports Dallas-based brokers with travel and expense requests and additional administrative functions.

Kayla came to Mohr Partners from Thiel Capital, where she held two roles across six years. Most recently, she served as an Executive Assistant, supporting executive decision-making through in-depth research on companies, industries and market trends, and coordinating relationship-building initiatives between leadership and startup founders and investors. Prior to that, she served as Office Coordinator at Thiel Capital's Los Angeles office, managing a guest speaker series and corporate retreats, providing executive calendar support and partnering with the legal team on contract workflows and document preparation.

Earlier in her career, Valiani worked as a Paralegal at Zieve, Brodnax and Steele LLP in Irvine, California, where she drafted court documents and managed client communications for a team of attorneys.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of Arizona and a Paralegal Certification from UMass Lowell. She is also a certified family mediator in Texas and Nebraska.
